

CJI Study Tour to Zambia

Canadian Jesuits International (CJI) is inviting Canadian teachers and educators to join a Study Tour to Zambia to help them deepen their understanding of international social justice issues and bring this to their classrooms.

The tour is being coordinated with the Jesuit Province of Zambia-Malawi and offers a unique experience to see first hand some of the key issues facing Zambia and much of Africa such as food security, economic development, education, AIDS, and reflect on how the Church is responding to these issues.

The program will include:

- visits to Jesuit and other projects
- meetings with local Jesuits and community leaders
- hands-on volunteer experience

The study tour will take place from

July 20th to August 7th 2008

Cost of the study tour is $3900

Application deadline: May 30th 2008

or later depending of flight availability
