

Project highlights

Bridging borders through:

Psycho-social support for diverse families displaced in Syria.

Education, advocacy and sustainable development in the Amazon Basin.

Human rights work among marginalized communities in India.

Thanks to your wonderful support and participation, Canadian Jesuit International's "Bridging Borders" campaign for Giving Tuesday was a great success!

Campaign Results

- Raised awareness by engaging 1,452 students from the elementary level through to university across Canada.
- Organized 30 public and private events in the following cities: Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary, Edmonton, Lethbridge and Vancouver.
- Amplified the message through media such as Salt and Light (TV), The Catholic Register and the B.C. Catholic (Print), Voces Latinas (Spanish radio) and The Agenda with Steve Paikin (TV Ontario).
- Raised $135,849 for 3 projects – 35% over our goal!

Thanks to you, we are able to support the following projects:

Syria: Support for Damascus families

- Enhance the emotional and social well-being of children and their families from both displaced and local communities.
- Provide learning support to children who have insufficient or no access to schools.
- Facilitate psycho-social support and access to child-friendly spaces for diverse families of various Muslim and Christian traditions.

counselling support

Community
Building

Training and Education

Latin America: Pan-Amazonia

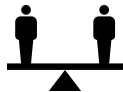

- Strengthen indigenous identity and address environmental damage caused by the exploitation of natural resources.
- Preserve indigenous languages and provide Spanish or Portuguese as context requires to strengthen local communities and skill sets for broader society engagement and advocacy.
- Identify and implement actions to protect natural resources and to build a culture of solidarity, awareness and care for "our common home."

Livelihood
Support

Sustainable Agriculture

Human Rights
Promotion

India: Lok Manch

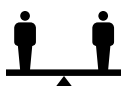

- Promote the dignity and well-being of marginalized people in India through policy interventions and improved access to legal rights.
- Provide more than 3,000 leaders, half of whom are women, with training and up-to-date information on food and other rights under the law, on how to access these rights, and on what measures to take when failures in the system are encountered.
- Address gender equity within the broader Indian society,

Livelihood
Support

Community
Building

Human Rights
Promotion

CANADIAN JESUITS
INTERNATIONAL

Visit our website: www.canadianjesuitsinternational.ca

Subscribe to CJI's e-news: cji@jesuits.ca