

Booth: Corporate Social Responsibility and Ecological Justice

Learn about Federal Bills and Legislation.

1. Prepare-

- a) Download and review the following; “Why study Parliament?” and “How a bill becomes a Law” and proceed to briefly answer the reflection questions.
- b) Watch video titled “How a bill becomes a law.”
- c) Follow the Activity through the content link titled “Activity- Parliament of Canada)
- d) Do your own research to answer the following questions;
 - i. What is Canadian Legislation, a Policy, and a Federal Bill?
 - ii. What are the 3 different levels of government in Canada and what are their responsibilities?
 - iii. Learn about; the Cabinet of Canada, the Senate of Canada, the Crown, and the House of Commons.

e) Browse The Canadian Jesuits International Website and reflect on the following:

- i. What are some social Issues that CJI, its partners, or the CNCA are working towards obtaining justice for? (Underlying the them of Corporate Social Responsibility for Human Rights and the Environment)
- ii. What is the connection between this issue and Canada?
- iii. How can we end Canada’s negative contributions to this issue?